There's No Place Like Vogue

1. STUDIO ALVO creates bespoke artworks, sculptural installations, and refined wall finishes that explore materiality, form, and texture. Each piece is thoughtfully crafted to harmonise with its surroundings, offering a sense of quiet luxury and contemporary ease while elevating the character of every space. Visit studioalvo.com and follow @studio_alvo on Instagram.

2. THREE GIRLS approaches custom-made curtains as an essential layer of interior design. Grounded in the understanding that window treatments influence both light and mood, the brand approaches each project with a refined, thoughtful sensibility. Founded by a mother of three, care is embedded in every stage of the process. With a mother's standard, each curtain is created to be as clean and gentle as it is elegant - an ethos that aligns seamlessly with modern family living. Discover threegirls.com and @threegirlscurtains on Instagram.

3. Berlin-based STUDIO GRAEFF presents Flower Diptych (each 154 x 108cm). Two large-scale, hand-printed C-prints transform natural forms through scale and detail, shifting from botanical subjects into intense images oscillating between intimacy and monumentality. Visit studiograeff.com Instagram: @studiograeff

4. Founded on the belief that what we burn in our homes should be as considered as what we wear on our skin, New York based SELISE creates non-toxic candles. They pride themselves on using the purest ingredients in their scented candles and favour natural materials that feel honest, refined, and quietly luxurious. Each candle is poured by hand in small batches, designed not only to scent a space, but to transform it. Visit selisestudios.com and follow @selisestudios on Instagram.

5. MMOOS is an Italian design brand offering highly poetic and unconventional stone objects. The Mostro collection, designed by BRH+ studio, explores contrast through sculptural forms. Balancing raw materiality and refinement, it channels radical elegance. The collection is crafted using sustainably reclaimed quarry Rosa Peralba Marble and Travertine from Tivoli. Photography by Giacomo Bianco. Visit www.mmoos.it and follow @mmoos.it on Instagram.

6. UDSI unveils its first dual-purpose traditional oud burner, reimagined for modern living. Designed to scent the home, it bridges ritual with contemporary design. Paired with a subtle oud, heritage is softened, elevated, and distilled into a new expression of quiet luxury. Discover www.udsi.co.uk and @udsi.co on Instagram. 11. VERDUYN STUDIO creates objects designed to capture your attention. From his base in the heart of Passendale, Davey Verduyn combines experience and knowledge to merge modern simplicity with a sense of robustness, bringing functionality to his own unique style. Visit verduynstudio.com and follow @verduynstudio on Instagram.

12. KLANGNAPHA, founded by Sintela Vergeer in Amsterdam, creates stoneware home objects defined by simple grace. Named after her mother's Thai surname, Klangnapha creates hand-built pieces inspired by organic forms and natural tones. Thoughtfully crafted to elevate everyday spaces. Visit klangnapha.com and follow @klangnapha on Instagram.

13. ISAC ELAM KAID (b. 1991, Alberta) lives in British Columbia, Canada. Working with stone, wood and leather, his designs negotiate solidity and vulnerability, proposing time as a material process. His work has been exhibited internationally, with pieces in public and private collections. Featured: Side Table, a standing formation composed of three sculpted, ebonised legs.
